TU Early Childhood Education Major

Why Earn a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education (ECE)?

The role of educators is changing with a critical need for teachers who can support and advocate for the cognitive, behavioral, social, emotional, linguistic and cultural needs of all children in the classroom. Our specially designed program prepares you for certification as an early childhood classroom teacher (birth – 3rd) through innovative approaches and hands-on experiences.

- Innovative and dynamic course work that helps you develop successful instruction and classroom management strategies
- Experienced faculty-mentors committed to your success.
- A supportive community within a cohort of your peers students.
- Collaborative partnerships with families, communities and agencies.

Why Towson University?

- Our nearly 160 years of proven educational leadership is the foundation for an ever-expanding reputation earned through results.
- Our programs are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE).
- TU's strong alumni community cultivates career-long mentoring and professional development opportunities.
- We incorporate emerging technologies and test new instructional methods in coursework and internships to enhance educational practice and knowledge.
- You'll interact with a diverse population of students and families through service-learning activities.

Stay close to home and work while earning your degree. In-person classes are held at The Universities at Shady Grove (USG) in Rockville. USG unites nearly 80 degree programs from nine Maryland public universities on one convenient campus in Montgomery County.
